1.2.61
a Lesson in the University of The New Covenant
Theodore Cottingham, May 5, 2005
www.unc.bz

1. I give you power to trample over serpents and scorpions and nothing shall by any means hurt you. Didn't I give you that promise? Didn't I give you those words? Didn't I share that with you? Have you not grasped it? Have you not lived it? Do you not know what it means even yet? So many don't.

I share with you Myself. I share with you Me, a man after Melchizedek, a man after My own heart, Me.

Mine, mining Me to share Me with My Mine—I love you and I love you for it.

2. I love you and I bless you for Melchizedeking My body and helping them understand their place, their position, their power, and their prowess, as well as their responsibility.

3. Come behind the veil with Me more, intertwine with Me more, give yourself to Me more, wholly, wholly, wholly, like you did this morning again, on the floor, face down, withholding nothing, giving Me your all. I love you, I love you, I love you.

4. Melchizedek My body and bring them to the position of arising them, putting their hand in Mine, and I will say thank you forevermore. I say thank you even now. Thank you for grasping, going tenaciously into Me for what I have known all along, for what I have given you all along, for what I have given My body.

5. Now prophet in that: prophet exclusively not, but prophet inclusively of My prophets, My apostles, My preachers, teachers, pastors, evangelists, rabbis, rectors and leaders of every thought-cult, and share Me with My Mine. Share Me with My Mine.

6. Share Me respectfully, in honor, respect, dignity being given to all, regardless of thought-status in your eyes. I love you, I love them, I love My people, I love My creation, I love the work of My hands. They came through Me, I have told you that over and over. They came through Me, I birthed every one of them. I am their Father and I come, I call, and I confirm that they are Mine and I do not want them lost.

7. I have given you many, now arise. I have given you much, now arise. Now arise and be led forth by only Me and panic and anxiety not, not ever, not even in moments, but in the peace, tranquility, knowledge absolute, of who I am and what I am doing with you, who you are and where you are going in Me, prophet-ing My people.

8. I love you for arising, raising My body and arising to fight for Me, mighty man of valor. Fight on, grace bestowed, grace bestowing upon My fighters, My generals who arise, who come, who listen, who wait before Me, who give themselves to Me unreservedly and learn to do so more so in your presence, in My presence.

9. Worry not about the schedule; worry not, worry not. Peace be upon you. Peace is upon Me for I am peace and I bring you My peace, and I bring you My rascals great, great and small, some would call them many other names. But My spectrum comes, for I issue, I issue the light from My heart, the light from My eye, into the spectrum of who will seek Me now and open to the light of My life to be the light of their life, maximizing their potential in Me.

10. Walk forth. Arise, willing to be wrong, willing to be right, adamant and arrogance none. I love you.

11. Glisten today My Tom, My Tom who I love, who loves Me so much. I lift, I exalt, I bless, I love you. I love you Tom and Barbara [Mohn], more from Me you will see, so shortly, so graced fully. I love you.

12. I love My Tim, David and Ron. I love My triads and triceps. I love My people, My small groups and My large groups, and I am coming to all, watch Me.

13. Watch Me release Myself this week coming, this WeekWorks and that which follows will boggle. Blame Me, credit Me, I am Me and I am in it and I am doing this. Walk forth with your hands and heart open, just like you are doing; and I will show up and I will say what I want to say and I will do what I want to do and you will be pleased and I will be pleased, and every attendee will be pleased. I love you.

14. Go forth this day, might and power and peace, peace, foundational peace, pure'd peace, strengthened peace.

15. I love you. I come and I call and I bring who I want there. Peace. My peace unto you this day. My peace. I am the King of Peace. I am peace. Peace to you.

Amen